Jacob Metz -- born in Germany about 1781 said to be the son of Henry Metz. He emigrated first to Kentucky by way of Harperstown, Maryland and afterward to the State of Ohio. One of his wives names was Anna Maria Thurman according to the notes of Samuel Lafayette Sprinkle; this however, is followed by a question mark. He is said to have served briefly in the War of 1812 in the 3rd Reg (Volley's) Ohio Militia. Checking on this I found this information is on file under the name Metzger. Samuel L. Sprinkle included it in his notes, but I am not satisfied that it was the same person. Jacob died in Adams Co Aug 25, 1862. My grandfather told me that the Metz' escaped from Germany under a hay wagon.

Martha Metz Killen -- married George Killen Nov 25, 1832; she was one Dr Will Miller's Great Grandmother

William Metz -- was married twice and had a total of 14 children: 1st marriage to Katherine Thomas: Sarah A (m William H Anderson), Susan (m Joseph McFarland), George (m Amanda Warren), Thomas (m Elizabeth Francis), Margaret Jane (m James McGovney), William J (m Della Gregory) and Samuel. 2nd marriage to Hannah Williams: James E (m Mary DeVoss; he sheriff of Adams Co), David H (father of Pearl Metz McCormick), Jacob F., Lewis T., Edward C. ~~Frank C.~~ Uriah H.

Scott, Superintendent of schools Augusta, Ky at turn of century), James F., George and Partha. James was born Aug 3, 1846 in Dunbarton, Ohio and served in the Civil War. James moved to Rome and lived there in 1900.

SPRINKLE CHART

David Sprinkle --- Elizabeth Metz Sprinkle

David Sprinkle -- born in Virginia on January 21, 1806 and died in Rome, Ohio May 21, 1876. He is said to be buried in Rome. He married Elisabeth Metz on August 14, 1826 in Adams Co., Ohio. They were married by an R. Wood. They lived in Jacksonville until the moved to Rome sometime after 1860. According to records at the Virginia State Library there were two Sprinkle heads of households in 1810, both in Wythe County. Jacob and Henry Sprinkle. The Jacob Sprinkle household according to the enumeration by sex and age apparently included a married son with children. Odds are good that Jacob, Henry or the unnamed son was David's father.

Elizabeth Metz -- name also spelled Elisabeth, was born April 11, 1811 in either Maryland or Kentucky. Her father was Jacob Metz. "The History of Adams County" says that she was born in Kentucky, but her grandson Samuel Lafayette Sprinkle's notes say that his mother told him Elizabeth was born in Maryland after her father landed near Harpers town. Elizabeth died in Rome on May 28, 1864.

John R Sprinkle -- died prior to his fifth birthday on January 18, 1856.

Martha Ellen Sprinkle Test -- had a daughter named Ethel Test Kennedy who lived in Cincinnati. She had the Metz Family Bible in the 1940's.

William H Sprinkle -- born in Adams County on May 20, 1834. He was a blacksmith and lived in Jacksonvillle. He served in the Civil War in Co E., 117 Reg., Ohio Vol Infantry (later 1st Reg., Ohio Heavy Artillery). His commander was Capt. James A. Murphy. He had blue eyes, brown hair, light complexion, and was 5'10 1/2" according to his military records. His occupation on the records is listed as mechanic. Harriet Mathias -- born July 22, 1839 in Winchester, Ohio, the daughter of Lavina Brooks and James Mathias. Harriet and William were married by the Rev. Jesse Wmsley on Sept 20, 1855 in Dunberton, Ohio. She died of a cerebral hemorrhage on Dec 16, 1924. Also buried outside of Jacksonvillle.

According to Madeline Sprinkle Kilgore there were 10 children rather than 9 in this family. She adds a Charles E. b. & d. 1870; she has William Dawson's dates as 1863; and does not have William LeRoy. My grandfather's notes included Harry and only one William. Have no other knowledge about this Harry. The 7 children who lived to maturity names I came from William's pension papers, the information in his own handwriting. I saw the other two (Wm LeRoy and Wm Dawson) graves in the cemetery in 1969; it said they were sons of Harriet and William Sprinkle and gave the dates I have on the chart.
